HEIDI WORKMAN FILES NOMINATION PETITION SIGNATURES TO RUN FOR STATE REPRESENTATIVE IN 72ND DISTRICT
*Prepares for Primary Against Ohio GOP-Censured “Blue-22”
Rep. Gail Pavliga*

ROOTSTOWN, OH – Heidi Workman, a conservative activist, registered nurse, small businesswoman, wife, and mother today filed nomination petition signatures with the Portage County Board of Elections to qualify for the Republican primary ballot on March 19, 2024 for state representative in the 72nd Ohio House District.

Workman is challenging incumbent State Rep. Gail Pavliga – a member of the infamous “Blue-22,” the 22 Republican House members who joined with every Democrat member of the House to elect Rep. Jason Stephens as Speaker – in the GOP primary on March 19, 2024.

“I never expected to be a candidate for state representative,” said Workman. “But Rep. Pavliga betrayed me and every Republican in Portage County when she joined with the Democrats in January to elect the Democrats’ choice to run the Ohio House. That betrayal by Rep. Pavliga, and other bad votes she has made during her two terms in office, compelled me to enter this race.”

“Portage County has become a conservative county and the people of Portage County deserve to have a state representative fighting for them who represents their common sense conservative values,” said Workman. “I will never forget where I come from, who I represent and what I believe in. The people of Portage County always will be able to count on me to work for them.”

The Ohio Republican Party censured Rep. Gail Pavliga on January 6, 2023, along with 21 other Republicans who joined with minority Democrats to elect Rep. Jason Stephens as House Speaker. More information on that can be found here.
